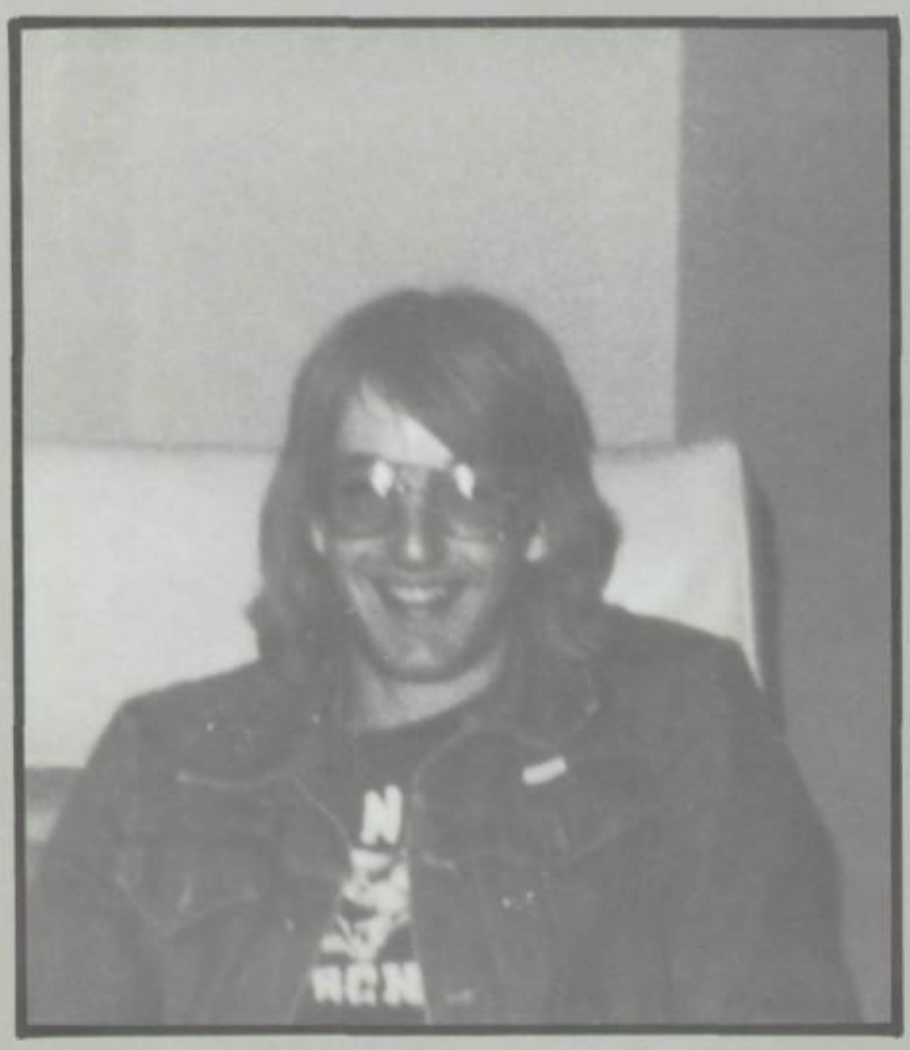
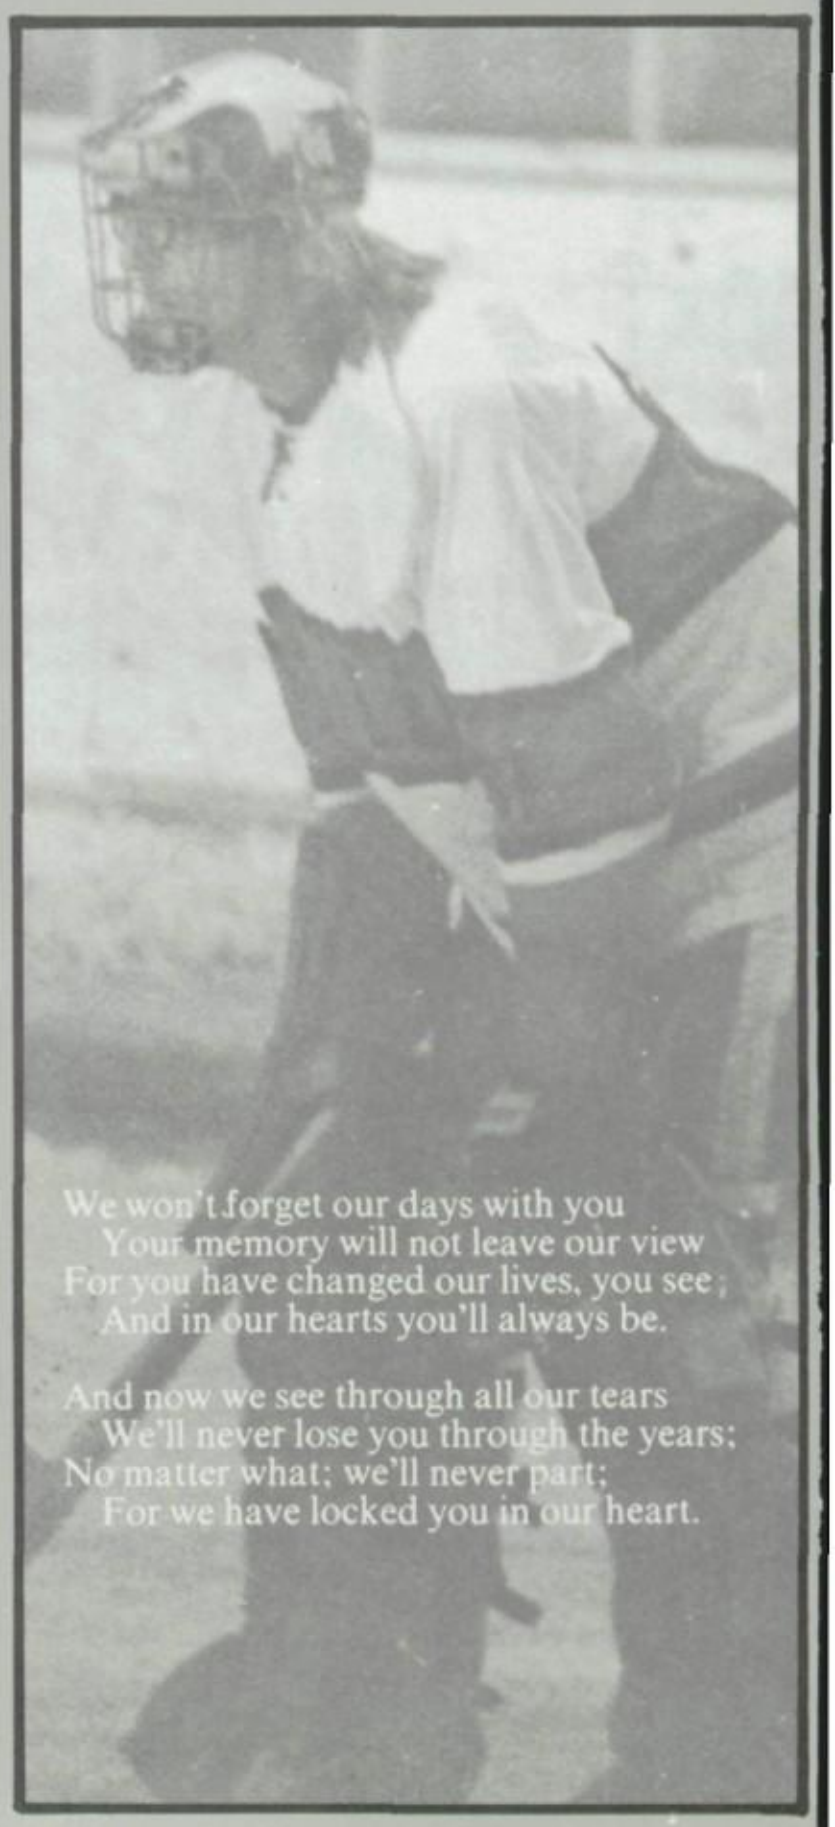
IN MEMORY OF MARK "SID" DIX





We won't forget our days with you
Your memory will not leave our view
For you have changed our lives, you see;
And in our hearts you'll always be.

And now we see through all our tears
We'll never lose you through the years;
No matter what; we'll never part;
For we have locked you in our heart.

HOMECOMING

The festivities centering around Homecoming week were Hillbilly Day, Hat and Sock Day, a bonfire and Red and White Day. These activities led up to the Friday pep rally, parade and game.

Before the pep rally got underway, coronation was held with Jodie Soderberg being crowned 1978 Homecoming Queen, attended by Kim Busche and Kim Neumann. Highlighting the pep rally was the Gong Show hosted by Tom Berris resulting in a tie between the Stage Band who played "Mercy, Mercy, Mercy" and Kenny Rogers and the Last Edition who sang "Lucille." The Stage Band won in the final gong-off.

Despite the rainy weather, the parade made its trip down main street. Taking 1st place was the senior's float, "King Cub," with the junior's float, "Cubs Got 'Em On the Run," receiving 2nd and the seventh grader's float, "We're #1" receiving 3rd.

Friday night the Cubs met the Rolla Bulldogs out on the field. At the half, the cubs had the Bulldogs 14-0, but the Bulldogs came back to defeat the Cubs with a score of 20-14.

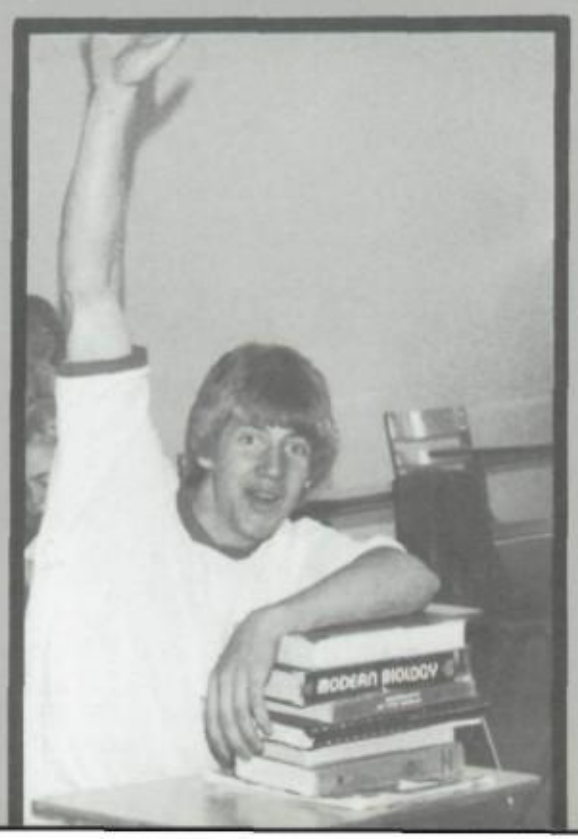
Good Morning Student!

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT!

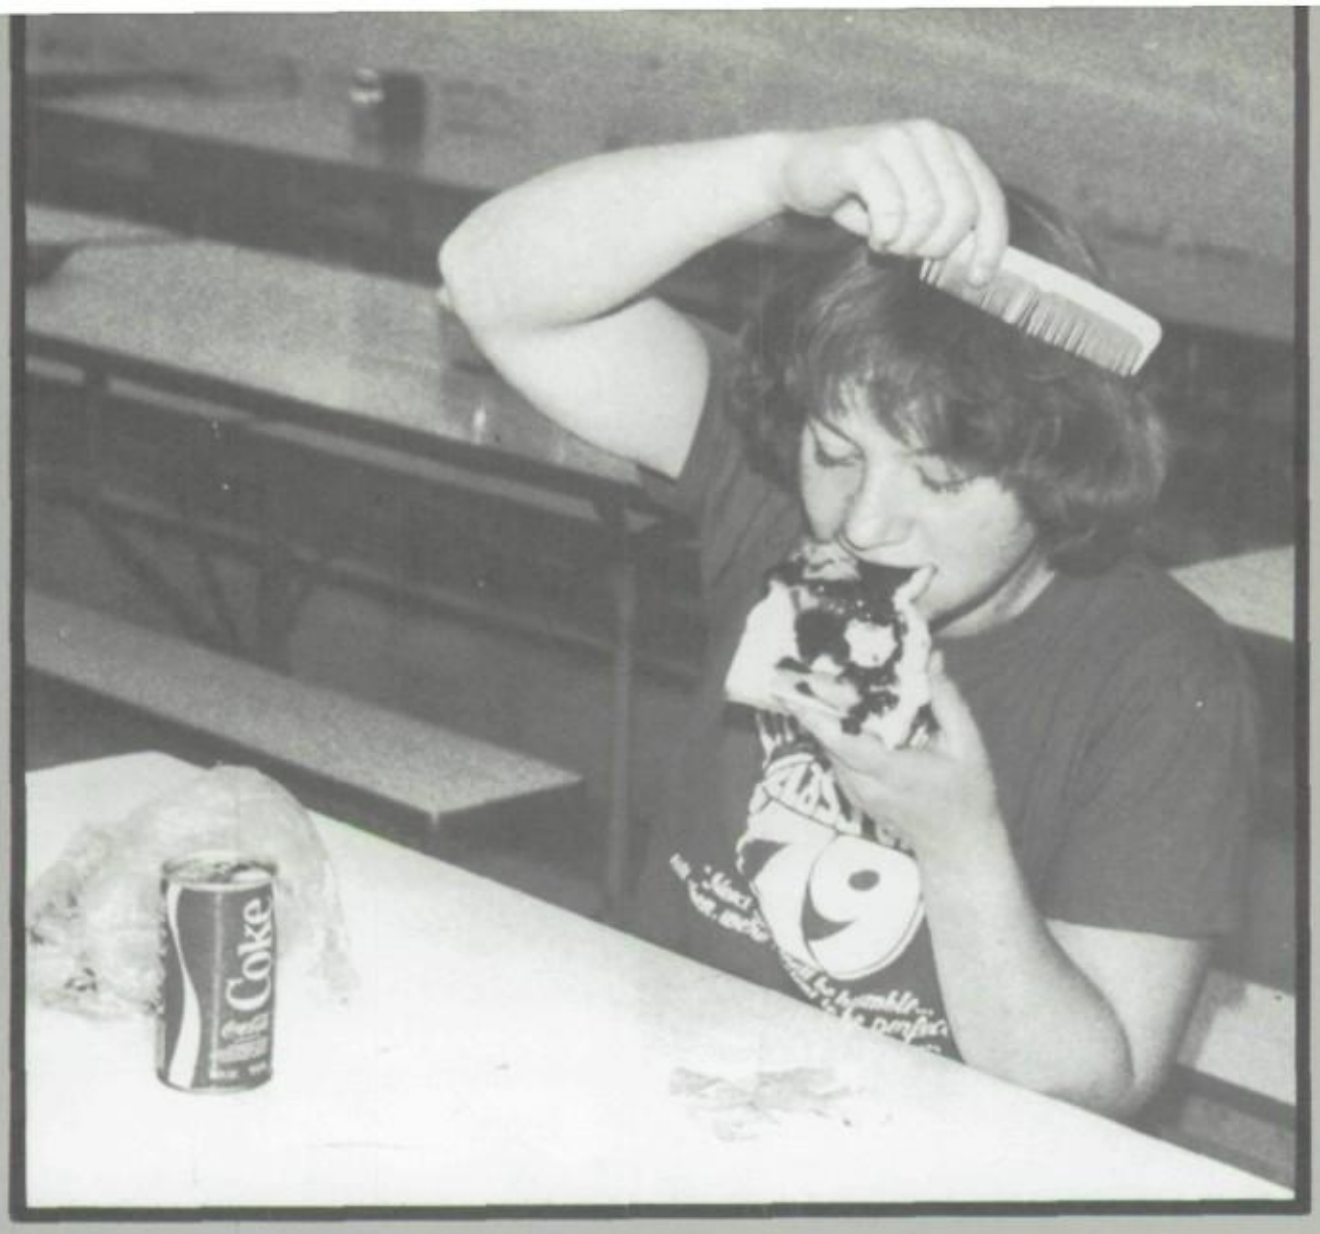
The start of another perfect day, another perfect breakfast . . . with eggs and toast as the entree, and rolls and bacon on the side, you've got all you need to start the day off right. On schedule as usual you sip another glass of orange juice while pausing to reflect on the benefits of a good breakfast. Today you could climb mountains, forge new trails, boldly go where no man has ever gone before, easily becoming the eighth wonder of the world. And to think it all began with a good breakfast.

Marching down the hall to first hour Barry radiates sunshine before the sun has even risen. Keeping up with other students, Barry is on his way through a challenge filled but rewarding day. Like an eager prize fighter, Barry awaits the bell which will signal the beginning of yet another mental battle.

His arm goes up like a shot, and his mouth drops open in eagerness everytime his teacher walks in. "Oh, Teacher, Teacher, please Teacher!! I gotta say something!" shouts Barry Neumann. "What is it, Barry?" asks the teacher. "Good morning, dear Teacher!" (chalk up another 12 brownie points for Barry!)

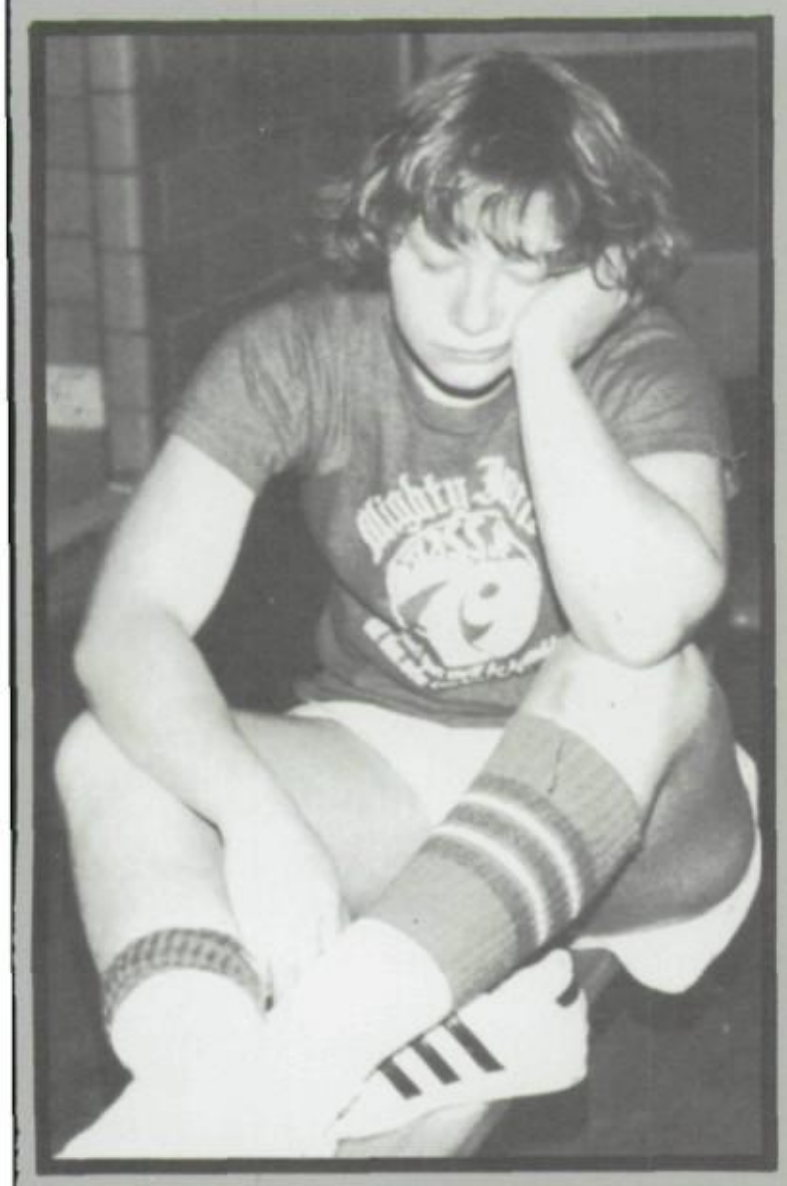


With blood pulsating in his temples and tendons vibrating in his rippling, bulging biceps, triceps, and pectorals, Barry strains to finish the last 95 curls in yet another daily workout. Always in his mind is his idol, the Bionic Man, whose muscles brought him fame, fortune, and the attentions of one Farrah Fawcett.



And Then Again . . . YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT

The start of another rotten day, another rotten breakfast . . . your mother burned the toast again and the last of the milk is on the floor. But it doesn't really matter . . . you weren't really hungry anyway. Besides, you overslept and there's only time enough to drink the pop you left out last night. Today you can't find the energy to climb the stairs. You'll get lost at lunch, accidentally lock yourself in your locker, and amaze your teachers with how exhausted you look. And to think it all began with a rotten breakfast!



Thoughts of jumping jacks and sit-ups only increase Julie's hunger and fatigue as she sits in the solitude of the deserted locker room. Calisthenics never were a high point of her morning, but today Julie can't bear the thought of bending down to tie her shoelaces.

Getting to class on time becomes a struggle for Shari Fiedler when her friend, Julie, decides to take a nap on the way. A brick wall isn't as soft as a pillow, but Julie, in her weakened state, hardly seems to notice as she sleep walks down the hall to her next class.

Apparently becoming the victim of the mid-morning blahs, an exhausted Julie Davis slumps over her English textbook. All desire of knowledge leaves her as she drifts off into dreams of steaming pancakes and glazed doughnuts. Obviously, Julie lacks snap, crackle, and pop.

NATIONAL READING WEEK

April 24-28, 1978

"Can I have your attention for the following announcement? This is National Reading Week . . ." Each day that week for a half hour one could read whatever one chose to read: So during all classes, including Phy. Ed. and music and band, everyone read something.

MUSIC CONTEST

Vocal Participants

Soloists Jill Eggl, Kim Neumann, Natalie Freund, and Cindy Vandal; and ensembles "Merry Month of Maying" and "Girls' Comp. about Boys" received star ratings at district. Jill Eggl and Natalie Freund received stars at state contest, also.

Instrumental Participants

Soloists Jill Eggl (trumpet), Kim Busche (flute), Tom Belzer (trombone), and the Brass Ensemble received star ratings at district. Jill Eggl and the Brass Ensemble received stars at state contest, also.

"COME SAIL AWAY"

Shari Fiedler, escorted by Richard Wagner, was crowned 1978 Prom Queen on May 6 by Prom Manager, Bill Noyes. Shari's attendants were Mauri Hilts, escorted by Marc Berg, and Kendle Johnson, escorted by Dan Holien. The 1978 prom couples danced to the music of "Condor" under the theme of "Come Sail Away."

THE ROAD NOT TAKEN

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that, the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I —
I took the one less traveled by
And that has made all the difference.
